THE CONSTITUTION.

EVENTS FOR TO-DAY, OCTOBER 2

STATEMENTS—
OPERA HOUSE—Mr. F. C. BANGS, MATINÉE AT 2:30 P. M. TONIGHT AS MARC ANTONY.

THROUGH THE CITY.

Local Paragraphs Caught on the Fly by the Constitution Reporters.

WILL OPEN MONDAY.—The Georgia Electric Medical College, will have its opening services Monday.

AT A BAD FIX.—The postoffice at Kingston, South Carolina, was found in such a bad condition that Inspector Moore turned it over to the postmaster, who is now under arrest.

GREEN HORSES JAILORS.—James W. Hippo, McGee and L. H. Lane, were yesterday arrested in a custom house jailors by Judge Haight. The men have been suspended for the summer months, but will now go to work next summer.

HE'S IMPROVING.—Wily Smith, the Richmond railroad employee who was killed in the yards night before last, is now well. He rested all day yesterday and Dr.
Necholson, the attending physician, feels confident of an early and complete recovery.

CHARTER APPLIED FOR.—Yesterday Mra.
C. Gidgere, Maggie L. Scanlon and R. H.
Burke, Jr., filed application for a superior court to be incorporated for the term of five years, under the name of the "Capital City Coffee and Spice Mills." The amount actually paid in is $500.

PARROTT BASE.—Miss Lillie Parrott was married yesterday afternoon to Mr. George George. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, on Morgan street, in the presence of a large number of the friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony the guests enjoyed an elegant supper, and were then entertained with music and dancing until late hour.

THE BODY TAKEN HOME.—The remains of Mr. H. Crawford passed through Atlanta yesterday en route to Baltimore. Mr. Crawford died in Montgomery Wednesday night after a short illness. He was a man of great talents and the friends who accompanied him to the same place, who reasoned him a day or two before he died, Mr. Crawford's home was in Baltimore.

TO BE HONOURED THIS MORNING.—At nine o'clock this morning Judge March L. J. Clarke will hear the application for the appointment as receiver for the Georgia Force company.
Mr. F. M. O'Bryan was appointed temporary receiver several days ago. The application was filed by T. J. Youngman, of Tennessee, who claims that Frank B. Logan owes him $350 in a note given as part payment for a patent rights license.

BESIDE THE MYSTIC RIVER.—The funeral procession of little Adeline Thompson was held from her parents' residence, 27 Piedmont street yesterday evening at half past nine.
The casket was a bright red one, and the lived ones left behind are crushed with grief, but realize that the departed one is now in care and suffering, and is in the place of angels beyond the mystic river.

THE HORSE RAN AWAY.—A horse hitherto hasten back was once frightened yesterday afternoon, on Decatur street, and ran away.
The driver left the animal standing in front of the Milburn wagon company and went into the house. During his absence the horse broke loose and ran away. The animal was soon stopped, but the driver was not. During the race the horse struck two or three passing wagons and was badly broken up. The horse died to George Ensmen.

A DEAD BROTHER.—Patrolman George Poole received a telegram from Chattanooga yesterday morning, informing him that the body of his brother, John Poole, was enroute to Atlanta. This was the first intimation the Patrolman Poole had of the death of his brother. It was also the first knowledge he had of the illness of his brother. The patrolman had been ill for some time, after the selection, and was laid to rest in the family grave in Oakland cemetery. Patrolman Poole does not even know when or where his brother died.

HE LOST A FINGER.—Herman Sweet, a young man employed at the Exposition cotton mill, lost a finger yesterday. While cleaning up the machinery the young man shaved his left hand too far in, and the fingers were caught among the teeth and two of them were badly lacerated before the hand could be extracted. Dr. Johnson was sent for and found it necessary to amputate one of the fingers, but was able to save the other by patching it up. The young man will not be able to resume work for some time.

MR. WHEAT'S DEATH.—Captain E. F.
Graham and Dr. J. Green returned yesterday morning from the Chattooga, where Mr. W. was killed. Captain Green, who was present at the inquest, says that the testimony showed that DuPont was drinking and was considerably under the influence of whisky when the accident occurred.
One of the mules when they were locking and Dandurff was standing up excited manner. The jury examined the harness to the bridge and found them built of heavy sculling and girdles fastened. Only the greatest strain causes them to give way. After carefully weighing the testimony the following verdict was agreed upon: That deceased came to his death by injuries received in an accident, which was the result of the negligence on the part of the driver, F. J.
Dandurff, who was under the influence of liquor at the time. Dandurff is fifty years of age, and a well do farmer of Cobb county.
He deeply regrets the sad affair. He declares he was under the influence of liquor.

A FIELD DAY.—
The Deputy Marshals Getting in Lively Work.

Yesterday was a field day in the revenue service.

The deputy marshals got in some lively work, arresting and bringing in five violators of the internal revenue laws, besides two of the men whose sentences were suspended when in and gave themselves up.

"We are a long ways behind," said one of the deputy marshals to the men, Jeff Morely and P. M. Bixby, both of Forsyth county.

"Yes, but we know we could fix it with the judge," was the reply.

The men were sent to jail.

Deputy Marshal Orobombe went into Carmichael, near Hutchinson factory, and arrested J. Hunt, a revenue violator.

Deputy Marshal Gentry brought in F. M. Jiles from Elgin county. There were two others.

A CROOKED POSTMASTER.

Samuel N. Dorsett, of Douglasville, is in a pack of trouble.

Yesterday Samuel N. Dorsett, postmaster at Douglasville, was carried before Commissioner Hight, charged with dealing unlawfully in United States postage.

The evidence was overwhelmingly against Dorsett, and he was bound over to the United States court. The grand jury is looking into the case.

Dorsett says it was his partner who dealt in the stamps. He used them to pay bills, etc.

He claims to be a man of means, and has been for some time, disconnected with media.
